1. INTRODUCTION

The music festival "Sharq taronalari", held in Samarkand, is of great importance for the preservation, promotion and development of unique samples of national music and song art of the peoples of the East, further strengthening of cultural and educational ties between the peoples, in which the years of independence has changed dramatically, harmoniously blended into the past and the present, has become a prosperous, beautiful area. Therefore, the authority of the festival is growing from year to year. International music festival "Sharq taronalari" allow artists all over the world, regardless of nationality, language, religion, and race, to communicate and sing together. Along with this, the festival serves as a wide promotion of unique samples of national music and song art of the peoples of the East, the preservation of their traditions, awakening in the hearts of the younger generation a sense of love for true art. Actually, the international music festival "Sharq taronalari" is established for the purpose of wide propaganda of the best samples of national music art of the Eastern countries, the preservation and development of fine Eastern, ethnic musical traditions, upbringing the youth a sense of love for art, expansion at the international level of circle creative communications, further strengthening

3. RESULT AND DISCUSSION

For the first time it began its activity on August 25, 1997 in the open-air Museum – Registan memorial complex in Samarkand. It was attended by famous artists from around the world, major musicians, famous scientists and public figures, musical figures, talented professionals who witnessed this holiday of miracle and true art. In such a joyful moment in ancient Samarkand millions of Nations and nationalities presented their place. It is not an exaggeration to say that every melody and voice of Eastern music shook the hearts of people, their hearts.

International music festival "Sharq Taronalari" with constant stability increases its credibility and becomes one of the largest in the world. No coincidence that this international music festival is held in Uzbekistan and in the same Samarkand. Samarkand has long been a meeting place for representatives of different people and cultures, and the great statesmen, artists and creative figures have visited this city.

of mutual cultural and spiritual cooperation, of honoring the ideas of peace, friendship and harmony.[1] Thus, the festival is a great event at the highest level, which has a political and spiritual significance, included in the scope of international cultural activities of UNESCO.

Another distinctive and important aspect of the festival is that it opens up new names, selected talents, valued original art, revered. On stage, a participant from each country sings a national song of his people. The winners of the competition will be the best performers of national songs. And in the days of the festival, there are workshops dedicated to the study of international musical cultures of the East.

2. METHOD

To collect data about the festival of "Sharq Taronalari", I was directly involved in the field by participating as one of the festival participants so I could feel and experience the nuance and atmosphere of festival, and I also conducted interview with a number of people that involved in the festival such as the committee of festival and the musicians that became festival participant. This festival has undergone development from the beginning until today namely in the beginning, it's just as music festival particularly traditional music, then it has developed into conference and the biggest festival in Central Asia. This development was always followed by me via various mass

Eastern music is an identity, a nationality. A distinctive feature is the preservation of incomparable traditions. Therefore, it remains in the eyes of composers, scientists, musicians around the world. When this festival was held for the first time, it was attended by representatives of 31 countries. Current- ly, the period of this festival has reached not only Central Asia, but also abroad. A vivid proof of this is the participation in the festival "Sharq taronalari" in 2017 of participants from 56 countries, and each time their number increases.

According to the terms of the festival, up to 9 people from each country, creative delegations (up to 7 people art community, 1 musician, 1 guest of honor) can participate in the events. Participation of creative people in the festival at their own expense is not limited. Participants submit their music programs to the organizing Committee within the established time frame. The program should be no more than 30 minutes and consist of the following areas: 1) Samples of folk music; 2) Classical national music; 3) Modern national music<sup>1</sup>.

An international Board of 11 people will be created to evaluate the competition. The bright national characteristics, pithiness of songs, high performing skill of singers, beautiful Oriental dress and stage behavior are the main criteria of evaluation. The festival is held every time an international scientific and creative conference on various topics. The full text or abstracts are sent to the organizing Committee of the festival in the amount of up to half of the printed sheet. ~~The text of the lectures is published in a special journal. Uzbek, Arabic, English and Russian are the working languages of the conference.~~

In 1997, the participants of the international conference adopted the Declaration of the international music festival "Sharq taronalari". The festival has also become a tradition to hold an International scientific conference, which, in general, makes a huge contribution to the enrichment of the spirituality of the peoples of the world, with scientific reports involving famous scientists of the world. For the first time held under the slogan "The art of music of the peoples of the East" conference aroused great interest among all. The conferences were devoted to topical

For the first time held under the slogan "The art of music of the peoples of the East" conference aroused great interest among all. The conferences were devoted to topical issues related to music: in 1999 "Eastern musical instruments", in 2001 "Makomot Group Conference of the International Committee of traditional music", in 2003 - "Classical music art of the peoples of the East", in 2005 - "Shashmakom Traditions and modernity", in 2007 - "Management of music festivals", in 2009 - "the Role of musical culture of the East in the development of world civilization", in 2013 - "Musical traditions of the East in the context of modern culture", in 2015 - "Interrelations of musical culture of the peoples of the East".

Since I am a direct participant and winner (1st place) of the festival

"Sharq taronalari", held in 2017, I want to say about the eleventh international music festival "Sharq taronalari". Within the framework of this festival the international scientific-theoretical conference "Formation and development of national traditions of musical culture of the peoples of the East" was held. Presentations were made by well-known musicologists and historians from Afghanistan, Great Britain, Hungary, Vietnam, Germany, Georgia, Italy, Indonesia, Canada, the Republic of Korea, Latvia, Lithuania, Tajikistan, Ukraine, Iran, Japan, Kyrgyzstan and other countries. The conference program included speeches and presentations of scientists and researchers of our country.

At the first meeting of the conference under the title "History and heritage" were presented the reports of foreign scientists on such topics as the relationship of musical culture of the peoples of the East, the musical heritage of Uzbekistan: preservation and development of national traditions, the traditions of Nawruz in Iran and their modern appearance, the importance of music in cultural relations between the peoples of Afghan traditional music, art of the peoples of Altai and southern Siberia, Persian and Arabic music. During the international conference, musicians and art critics of a number of countries held presentations and master classes.

The resolution of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan "On measures to prepare for the international music festival "Sharq taronalari" of February 26, 2019. In accordance with the resolution, the Ministry of culture of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the Union of composers and composers of Uzbekistan and the Khokimiyat of Samarkand region approved the proposal to hold the twelfth international music festival "Sharq taronalari" in Samarkand on August 26-30, 2019. The resolution also approved the composition of the organizing Committee for the preparation and holding of the festival<sup>2</sup>.

The festival will host an international scientific and practical conference "Prospects for the development of traditional musical art of the peoples of the East." It will be attended by well-known foreign and domestic musicians, scientists and specialists, as well as researchers. Over the years, the festival has not only become a very significant and noticeable phenomenon of culture, but has become a great festival of musical art, where artists and musicians from different countries, art groups exchange views and experiences and where all the beauty and charm of ethnographic music is fully manifested.

Today we can say with confidence that the festival has taken a worthy place in the world community, and interest in it is growing every year. The inclusion of the festival among the international cultural events of UNESCO testifies to its high political and spiritual level. Such a large-scale event is not only an honor for any state, but also a great responsibility to the world community.
